By Colonel H.R. MacMunn, C.B., C.S.I., D.S.O.

This book is a comprehensive account of the Victoria Cross, the highest award for gallantry in the British military. It tells the stories of over 1,000 Victoria Cross winners, from the first award in 1856 to the present day.

The book is divided into two parts. The first part gives a general history of the Victoria Cross, from its inception to the present day. The second part tells the stories of the individual Victoria Cross winners. These stories are arranged by regiment, and they provide a fascinating insight into the history of the British Army.

The book is illustrated with over 1,000 photographs and paintings, and it includes a full index. This makes it an invaluable resource for anyone interested in the history of the Victoria Cross or the British Army.
