Each poem in Typewriter Rodeo is based on a true story shared by a real person. The stories are as diverse as the people who tell them, and they offer a wide range of perspectives on life. Some of the poems are funny, some are sad, and some are simply thought-provoking. But all of them are honest and heartfelt, and they offer a glimpse into the human experience that is both unique and universal.

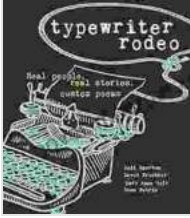

If you're looking for a book that will make you laugh, cry, and think, then Typewriter Rodeo is the perfect choice. This collection of poems is a reminder that we are all connected, and that our stories are worth sharing.
